DECLARATION OF FINANCES

If it is determined that you are admissible to Oregon State University, OSU can provide you with an I-20 (F-1) or DS-2019 (J-1) only after you submit satisfactory evidence that you have adequate funds for your proposed program of study. Acceptable financial documents must not have been issued (by the financial institution) more than six (6) months before the issuance of immigration documentation by the university. Funds must be immediately available (liquid assets). Be sure to keep copies of these documents as you will need to present them to the U.S. Consular Officer at your visa interview and to the U.S. Immigration Officers at the Port of Entry. Please note: U.S. visa regulations restrict student employment, and therefore, it is important not to rely on employment for income to offset your educational expenses. If you are interested in a graduate assistantship, please contact your academic program directly for more information. Availability can vary from year to year and many graduate students are offered assistantships only during their second year of study at OSU.

Estimated Expenses: These figures cover the cost of tuition, fees, and a modest estimate for room, board, books, supplies, health insurance (required of all international students and accompanying family members), and incidental expenses. Summer tuition and fees are not included in the estimates. Expenses tend to increase slightly from year to year. To help you prepare financially, Master's degree programs are 2-3 years in length, and Doctoral programs are 4-6 years in length. You and your sponsor must prepare to meet the ongoing expenses of your educational and living expenses, not only for the first year, but for the duration of your studies at OSU. Additional resource fees, ranging from $105-$1,290 per year, may be required of some majors. For additional information about tuition and fees, please visit the Business Affairs website: <http://fa.oregonstate.edu/business-affairs/tuition-and-fee-information>

*Fees include a one-time matriculation fee of $350, charged during the first term of attendance.

^There is a student identification card fee of $25, charged during the first term of attendance, not included in this figure.

Estimated room and board price is based on a double room on campus. For housing information: <https://gradschool.oregonstate.edu/current-students/new-graduate-students>

Health Insurance information for students without assistantships can be found here: <https://studenthealth.oregonstate.edu/insurance>

Assistantship Awards: Applicants awarded an assistantship must pay for 10% of fees and 10% of health insurance expenses. Health insurance is estimated to be $80 per month for the 12 month academic year. Monthly premium cost is subject to change at the beginning of the term (This is for the student only, dependent health insurance is an additional expense. See health insurance link above for additional information.) The total figure listed includes the estimated expenses for which the student is responsible. These expenses must be covered by the monthly stipend or other funds. If the stipend does not cover the total amount, the student must provide additional funding for the difference. These figures are subject to change when the CGE collective bargaining agreement is updated. Health insurance policy for assistantships: <https://hr.oregonstate.edu/graduate-student-insurance-plans/graduate-assistant-insurance-plan>

NOTE: The figures that appear on an I-20 or DS-2019 will be the university average totals for the program, see total figures above for examples. Summer expenses are not included in the figures above. Students remaining in the U.S. during the summer term must have additional funds to cover tuition & fees, room & board, books & supplies and any other summer expenses.
