DECLARATION OF FINANCES

If it is determined that you are admissible to Oregon State University, OSU can provide you with an I-20 (F-1) or DS-2019 (J-1) only after you submit satisfactory evidence that you have adequate funds for your proposed program of study. Acceptable financial documents must not have been issued (by the financial institution) more than nine (9) months before the term you intend to enroll at OSU and must accompany this form. Be sure to keep copies of these documents as you will need to present them to the U.S. Consular Officer at your visa interview and to the U.S. Immigration Officers at the Port of Entry. Please note: U.S. visa regulations restrict student employment, and therefore, it is important not to rely on employment for income to offset your educational expenses. If you are interested in a graduate assistantship, please contact your academic program directly for more information. Availability can vary from year to year and many graduate students are offered assistantships only during their second year of study at OSU.

Estimated Expenses: These figures cover the cost of tuition, fees, and a modest estimate for room, board, books, supplies, health insurance (required of all international students and accompanying family members), and incidental expenses. Summer tuition and fees are not included in the estimates. Expenses tend to increase slightly from year to year. To help you prepare financially, Master's degree programs are 2-3 years in length, and Doctoral programs are 4-6 years in length. You and your sponsor must prepare to meet the ongoing expenses of your educational and living expenses, not only for the first 12 months, but for the duration of your studies at OSU. Additional resource fees, ranging from $105-$1,290 per year, may be required of some majors. For additional information about tuition and fees, please visit the Business Affairs website: <http://fa.oregonstate.edu/business-affairs/tuition-and-fee-information>.

Estimated room and board price is based on a double room on campus. For information about off-campus housing visit: <http://oregonstate.edu/uhs/off-campus>

Health Insurance information can be found here: <http://studenthealth.oregonstate.edu/general/international-students>

Assistantship Awards: Applicants awarded an assistantship must pay for 10% of fees and 12% of health insurance expenses. Health insurance is estimated to be $60 per month for the 9 month academic year (This is for the student only, dependent health insurance is an additional expense. See health insurance link above for additional information.) The total figure listed is the estimated expenses for which the student is responsible. These expenses must be covered by the monthly stipend or other funds. If the stipend does not cover the total amount, the student will need to provide additional funding to make up the difference. These figures are subject to change when the CGE collective bargaining agreement is updated. NOTE: The figures that appear on an I-20 or DS-2019 will be the university average totals for the program, see total figures above for examples.

Summer tuition and fees are not included above. Estimated Summer 2017 tuition and fees: $4,500-$7,500 (The Summer 2018 figures are not yet determined).
