

Graduate School
highlights from academic year
2016-2017

Oregon State University

Graduate Students and Postdocs

4,675

Graduate students

15%

Of total OSU
student body

331

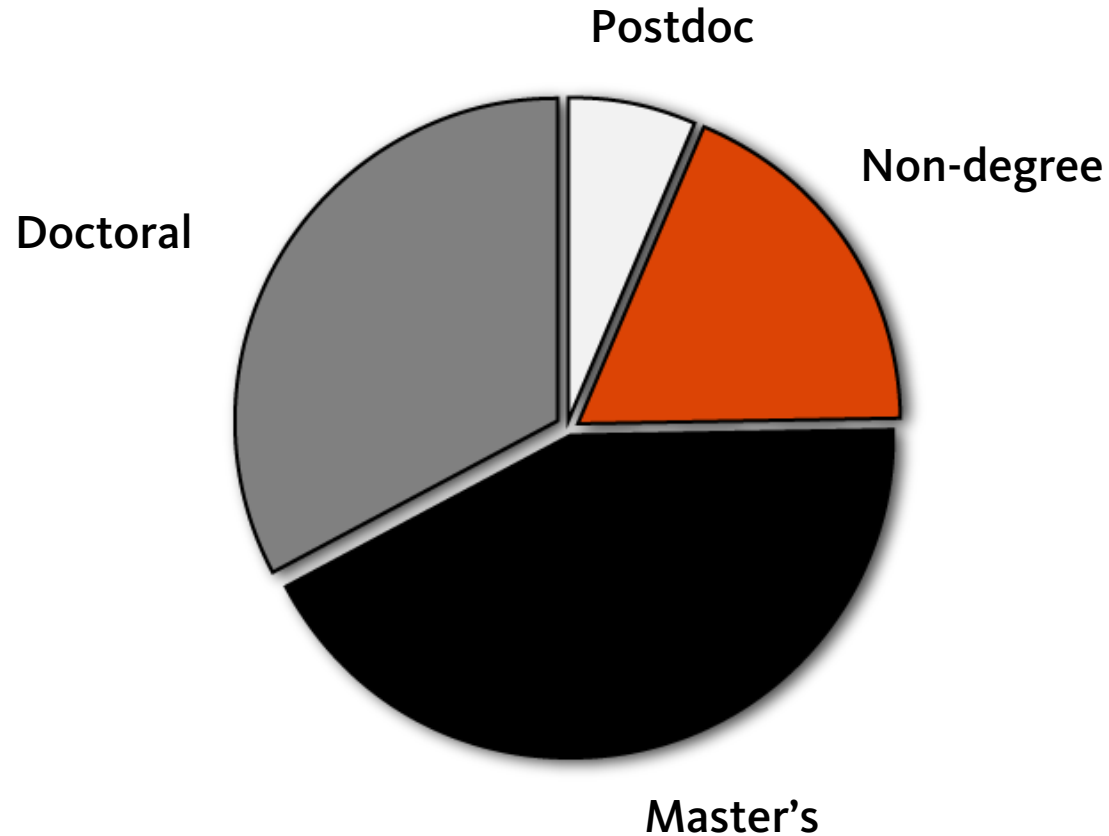

Postdocs

14% U.S. minorities

30% International

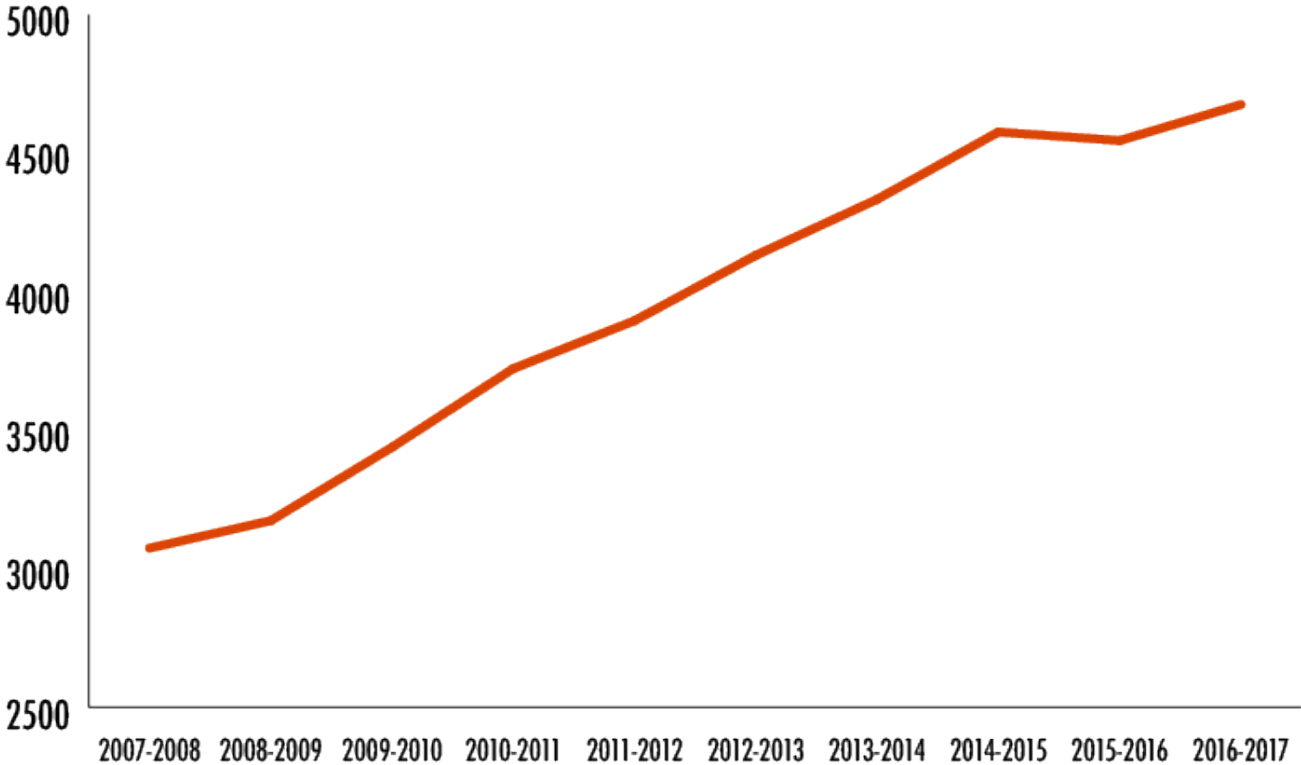

400 Online master's and
Ph.D. students

Graduate Students and Postdocs

1,636 – Doctoral level
2,120 – Master's level
919 – Non-degree
331 – Postdoc

Graduate Students

Enrolled students over time

6,958

Applications (fall 2016)

991

Master's

273

Ph.D.

Degrees earned

Graduate Programs

We offer 109 distinct programs in 11 colleges across 3 campuses with 23 programs online.

Most popular programs by enrollment:

- Electrical and Computer Engineering
- Business Administration
- Mechanical Engineering
- Civil Engineering
- Public Health
- Chemistry
- Industrial Engineering

Graduate Assistants

2050

Graduate assistants

HELP FUEL OSU'S

$441m

Research enterprise

HELP TEACH OSU'S

26,239

Undergraduate students

Fellowships and scholarships

$5 million

In awards and scholarships

385

Students receive awards

25

Awards managed by the Graduate School

Professional development

$2,000

In cash prizes at the three-minute thesis competition

32

Events

1st

- Grad Appreciation Week
- Graduate Showcase featuring student scholarship from across the university

Focus on writing, career, research, communications, leadership and teaching

Graduate Student
Success
Center

A student-led space in partnership with the Memorial Union

3

Student visits

284

Room reservations

The GSSC features lounge
space, meeting room,
computer, printer, coffee
maker, reservations
available

Grad Welcome Week

425

Attended orientation

1,200

Attended BBQ

- Orientation has presentations, panel discussions and a resource fair
- GTA training (for domestic and international students)
- Library Day
- All graduate student and families BBQ

Oregon State University
Graduate School