

Oregon State University
Graduate School

Institutional Partners

Institutional partners are key academic, professional, and student life-focused units across campus that continue to support graduate students throughout their time at Oregon State University. The list below is non-exhaustive, but represent a wide spectrum of units that are able to nominate graduate students for several Graduate School-administered awards:

- Academics for Student Athletes (ASA)
- Basic Needs Center (BNC)
- Career Development Center (CDC)
- Center for Fraternity and Sorority Life (CFSL)
- Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL)
- Community Engagement and Leadership (CEL)
- Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
- Disability Access Services (DAS)
- Diversity and Cultural Engagement (DCE)
- Educational Opportunities Program (EOP)
- Family Resource Center (FRC)
- Graduate Writing Center (GWC)
- Military and Veteran Resource Center
- Office of Institutional Diversity (OID)
- Office of International Services (OIS)
- Oregon State Advance (ADVANCE)
- Recreational Sports (Rec Sports)
- Student Health Services (SHS)
- University Housing & Dining Services (UHDS)
- Valley Library and University Press

If you don't see your unit represented on this list, please reach out to graduate.scholarships@oregonstate.edu for more information.