Graduate Career and Communication Workshops

Improve your skills by spending a day with invited speaker Dr. Peter Fiske

Putting your Ph.D. to work
10 a.m. to noon

The science and strategy of science communication
1:30 to 3 p.m.

A thorough and practical overview of the process of career planning and job hunting in today's job market, from the perspective of a young Ph.D.

Reveals how technical communication is more effective when you appreciate things from the listener’s perspective. And discusses why “selling skills” are vital to understand and master, even if you never plan on leaving the bench.

Peter S. Fiske, Ph.D., Director of the Water-Energy Resilience Research Institute (WERRI) at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. Prior to joining LBNL, Dr. Fiske was CEO of PAX Water Technologies, Inc. He is also a lecturer at the Haas School of Business at UC Berkeley where he teaches in the Center for Executive Education.
