Graduate Student Scholarly Presentation Award

Nomination Form Overview 2020-2021

Previously offered as the “Travel Award,” the Graduate School is pleased to offer the new Graduate Student Scholarly Presentation Award for the 2020-2021 academic year. This change is to comply with OSU COVID travel restrictions while supporting graduate students’ professional development. The funds from this award are designed to provide domestic or international graduate students with financial support to cover part of the costs associated with registering, virtually attending and presenting their scholarly work/achievements at prestigious virtual conferences.

In the online nomination form, be prepared to provide the following information:

1. Is the nominee a current master's or doctoral student at Oregon State University?
2. Will the nominee be enrolled in at least 3 graduate credits at OSU at the time of the conference, OR, in the case of a conference occurring between the end of spring term and the beginning of fall term, will the student be returning to at least 3 graduate credits of enrollment in fall term?
3. Is the nominee listed as the sole author/presenter, first or lead author/presenter, or serving in a capacity whereby they are responsible for significant leadership for the overall session?
